

Wedding Photography Package List

Wedding planning is fun but as with all the important decisions for your Big Day it comes with the need of having to turn choices into decisions. Among those choices your wedding photography will give you much food for thought with decisions to be made on how you want your wedding day memories captured and preserved – what parts of the day, the style of the images, the quality of products and of course value for your budget. When the dress has been worn, the meal eaten, the music played, your wedding photographer will have captured for you memories of your Special Day that will last you a lifetime.

I have created the following sample wedding packages based on 'Full Day' coverage from Bridal Preparation to 1st dance. Each can be selected 'as is' or with refinement, (length of coverage, type of album etc.) to achieve a wedding photography package which like your fiancé is 'right for you'. At our 'no obligation' meeting, I will show album samples and full wedding galleries to assist you in reaching a final decision you are happy with.
